“ I have years of fond memories with the Murray family. I grew up just houses away and felt like their home was my second home. I shared many dinners and holidays with them. They were always kind and generous. Emmett always had a big smile on his face that made you happy! Prayers and thoughts go out to the Murray family. He will be very missed

“ I have very fond memories of my Uncle Emmett. He was a very funny, loving and kind person. I have also heard many great stories about him and my dad (Jim) and their brother Don. Our thoughts and prayers are with his immediate family as they mourn his loss and celebrate his life.

“ For many years the Murray's were the Morse Kids' second family; Audrey and Emmett were very special to all of us, and for some of us the Murray children were our greatest friends.
MANY Wonderful memories as a result of the special bond. Emmett was a class-act and a great guy. He joins his beautiful bride Audrey, and daughter Kathy in the eternal life with their Lord.
Our hearts go out to all of those that were touched by Emmett...and special prayers for the entire Murray family, who we consider as one with ours.

God Bless you all.
